

Scout Law

A scout is.....

trustworthy -- doing as I said I would loyal ---being a part of a family or group and working together helpful -- helping other people, animals and our world friendly -- being nice to everyone courteous -- using nice words and actions kind -- treating people the way I want them to treat me obedient -- following directions cheerful -- acting happy toward other people thrifty -- spending money carefully brave -- trying something even if I am afraid clean -- having a clean body and thinking nice thoughts reverent -- growing in my faith and beliefs and respecting people who may believe different than me